

Girls 'N Power
from Pace Center for Girls & Young at Art Museum visit re-Framing the Feminine at Girls' Club
(a magazine)
November 2011

(above) Sarah with Sally Mann

Amber O.

The picture that I pick was the lady who was holding the baby because she looked like she was depressed because she just had a baby.

Amber on Brenda Ann Kenneally

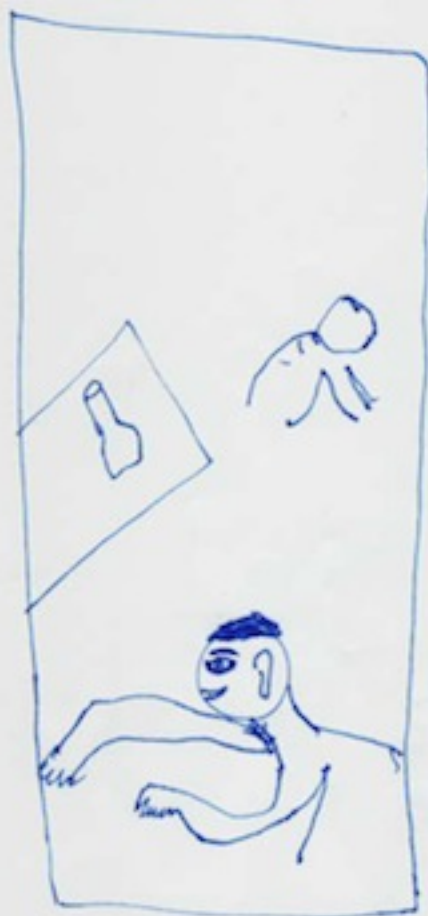

Amber O.

Nan Goldin

Jimmy Paulette and Tobbo!
Undressing, NYC, 1991

Emily on Nan Goldin

Three close friends are excited to go out to a Club or Party to dance. Before they go they get ready by putting on lots of makeup. They get dressed in their favorite yet comfy clothes.

Emily
Bittner

Before this photo, I feel like the photographer was swinging with her child, and decided she didn't want a perfect clear shot. So the photo was meant to come out unclear, but some things really stood out.

By: Hayley Brooks

Untitled
by Petah
Coyne

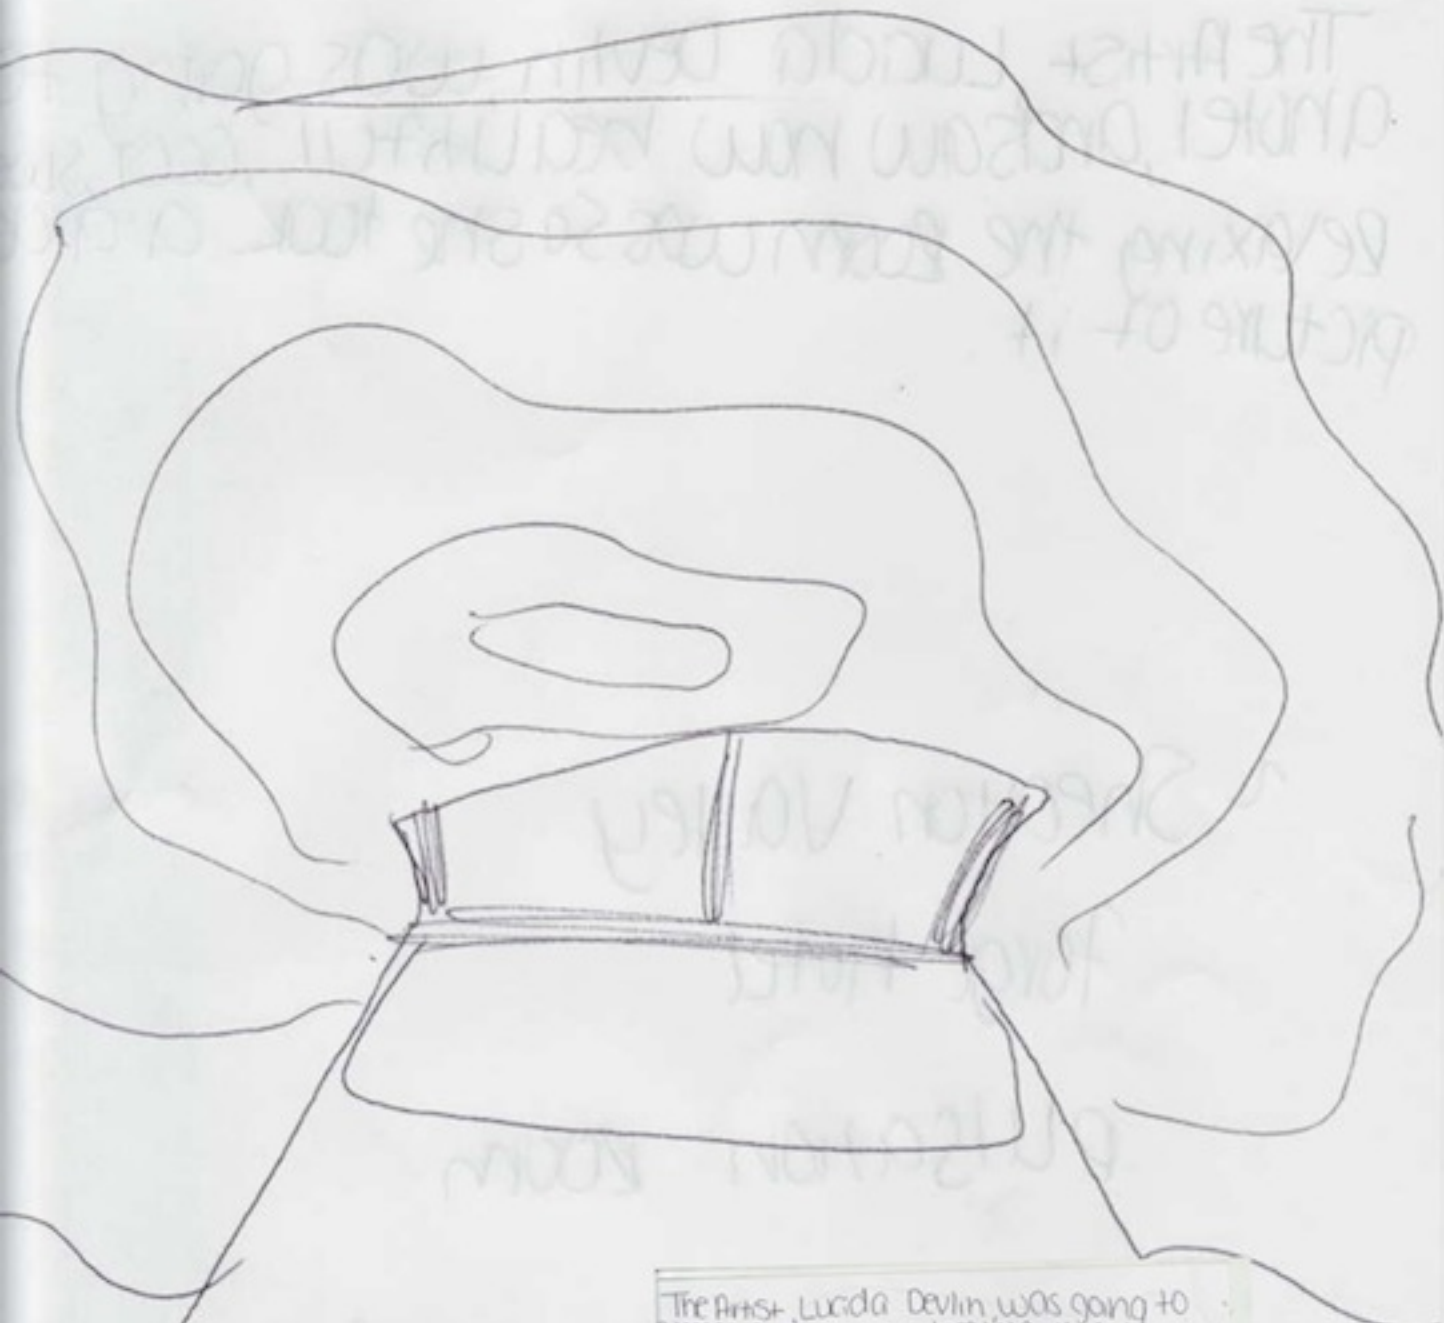

Hayley on Petah Coyne

- I believe that the photographer was Just taking a Random Picture of the Female ~~was~~ about to go on a special event I believe they were thinking OMG! I'm ready to go enjoy myself and the photographer was proud of her and ready for her to go.

Courtney Johnson

Jorane on Courtney Johnson

The Artist Lucinda Devlin was going to Ariel and saw how beautiful, cool, sweet Relaxing the room was so she took a quick sketch of it

Julisa on Lucinda Devlin

~ Shepton Valley Forge hotel relaxation room
by Lucinda Devlin

Julisa

Sequoia H.

A young girl, like this older dude so she went to his house. She told him she wasn't ready to move fast.
He was sexually demanding,
and ended up rapping
her. @ then he tried to be nice like nothing happened.

Sequoia on Ruth Dudley Carr